Police Book Two Youths For Theft

Two Antioch youths were booked for theft and one for disorderly conduct after the theft of tires from Green's Sinclair Station last Thursday at about 11 p.m. and produce from the IGA early Friday morning.

Gene Moeller, formerly of Antioch, gave a Chicago address when he was arrested. Police Chief Jack Heick said. Robert Koppa lives "wherever he can hang his hat", Heick said, but both boys are well-known in the area.

Moeller and Koppa were booked for theft and released on $300 bond each. The third youth, Pat Ring, Antioch, was not implicated in the theft, Heick said, but was in the car and knew of the theft. He was charged with disorderly conduct, and released on $25 bond. Their case will be heard on July 28 at Round Lake.

"We were able to catch these boys because of the cooperation of a citizen named Bill," Heick said. "I won't give his name because we don't want any reprisals when people help us solve these cases."

Jack Walls, charged with theft and forgery after being apprehended by Antioch police recently, was brought before the Grand Jury last week and indicted.

Start New Lake Ave. Route Soon

Work to re-surface Lake Avenue at Channel Lake, and to re-route the south portion, will probably begin in about a month, according to R. M. Brown, Assistant Superintendent of County Highways, and may be completed by fall.

Bids on the highway work were opened Monday, July 19. Most of the right-of-way needed for the new route has been acquired, Brown said.

The road will start to angle west of the present Lake Ave. at the north edge of the Atwood property, about 600 feet south of the channel. It will curve across the back yard of the property south of Atwood's, and cross the present site of Chase's Service Station.

The building now housing the Paul Chase Service Station will be removed, and a new station built. The new road will meet Route 173 just south of the gas pumps.

The present Richmond Road will probably have to be closed during part of the construction, making it necessary for motorists to enter Route 173 at the corner near the Gifford estate. Richmond road will be abandoned when the new route is completed.

Lake Avenue will be re-surfaced to Wilmet Road, Brown said, and two new bridges installed. The south bridge will be 28 feet wide, plus sidewalks. The north bridge will be 30 feet wide plus a sidewalk.

Lake Villa Raises Money For New Rescue Squad Bldg.

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

Forty-one volunteer solicitors raised $1,440.00 for a new building for the Lake Villa Rescue Squad, when they went door to door in Venetian Village and West Milmore Sunday afternoon.

Their goal had been $3,000. They hope to reach it when the members of the West Milmore Women's Club and the Venetian Village Women's Auxiliary make their follow-up calls during the following week.

Members of the Lindenhurst Women's Club have been making follow-up calls in Lindenhurst this week. They hope to have contacted everyone in the village by Friday. $708 was collected in Lindenhurst and Millburn on July 11.

Homes in Lake Villa proper, Crooked Lake and Deep Lake will be visited next Sunday, July 25.

Donors may be interested to know that the money will not be used for anything else but a new building. If they don't collect enough now, the money will be banked until enough is raised. Between $10,000 and $15,000 is needed to erect a building. Rescue squad members and tradesmen plan to contribute their time to construct the building.

"Music Man" Is Sell-Out

The run of "Music Man" at the PM&L Theatre on Main St. started with a full house last weekend.

Friday, opening night, usually a slow night, the seats in the theater filled rapidly. Saturday night was a sell-out, and advance ticket sales for the coming weekend are heavy.

Maja Cardiff and Wes Camp have the leading roles in the musical comedy, directed by Ken Smouse.

The show will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, July 23, 24 and 25. Tickets may be reserved by calling 395-3611.

It is now proved beyond doubt that smoking is one of the leading cause of statistics.

Legion Honors 2 Antioch Men

The Antioch American Legion Post No. 748 honored two men at last Thursday's meeting at the Legion Hall on Ida Ave.

Walter I. Scott, former Antioch Chief of Police, was given a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his many years of service to the community.

James L. Waters, 1063 Main, Antioch, received a certificate in recognition of his 45 years of membership in the American Legion. Both awards were presented by Donald Gaston, Commander of Post No. 748.

Mr. Waters is a veteran of the First World War. He belonged to the Grayslake Legion Post before the Antioch Post was formed. The Grayslake Post sponsored the Antioch Post when it started. Mr. Waters later transferred to the Antioch Post.

Approve Budget For Next Year

The Antioch Village Board approved the budget for the village for the next fiscal year Tuesday night. The budget is published elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

Amount appropriated for the General Corporate fund was $331,450.00.

Bids on a pump for the new village well were opened. G. P. Miller Artesian Wells submitted a bid of $7,076.00. E. H. Glenn & Sons bid $6,695.25. Layne

Western, who had submitted the only bid at the previous meeting, had withdrawn their bid of $6,650.00.

Village engineer Roger Patzer asked for time to study the bids, and awarding of the contract was deferred until the next regular meeting.

Mayor Raymond Toft read letters asking for permission to hold tag days in the village. One was a request to hold a 53-minute march on January 16 for the cerebral palsy fund. The board gave permission.

A request for permission to collect donations for the Cystic Fibrosis fund from August 23 to September 10 was referred to committee for checking.

Mayor Toft appointed Dave Nissen representative to the Lake County Municipal League and Bob Wilton as alternate.

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that letters were ready to be mailed to owners of vacant lots informing them that lots must be kept mowed and cleaned up.

Clerk Clarence Shultis read a letter from the Wm. M. Meyer Co. of Skokie informing the board that they had employed a man to mow their property on North Avenue, where they have a warehouse.

Mayor Toft announced the appointment of Marilyn Sterbenz to assist Clerk Clarence Shultis and Treasurer Martha Hunter, part time, at clerical work, at $1.75 an hour. The board approved the appointment.

The board authorized Mayor Toft to sign a contract with the Advance Valve Installation Co. to install a valve in the water main near the Froese Sno Co. Water being supplied to Froese Sno has been very sandy for some time. It is hoped that the valve will eliminate the sand until the new filtration plant is in operation.

Attorney Edward Jacobs announced that the petition for tax exemption on village property, supposedly filed about a year ago, had been sidetracked and was not recorded. He said he would re-file the petition.

Antioch Man Dies In 2-Car Crash

An Antioch man, Norman L. Ford, 25, of Box 83, and three others died in a two-car collision Saturday night at Routes 12 and 120.

According to a witness, both cars went through the intersection on a changing light. The three occupants of the car owned by Ford were thrown out, so police were unable to determine who was driving.

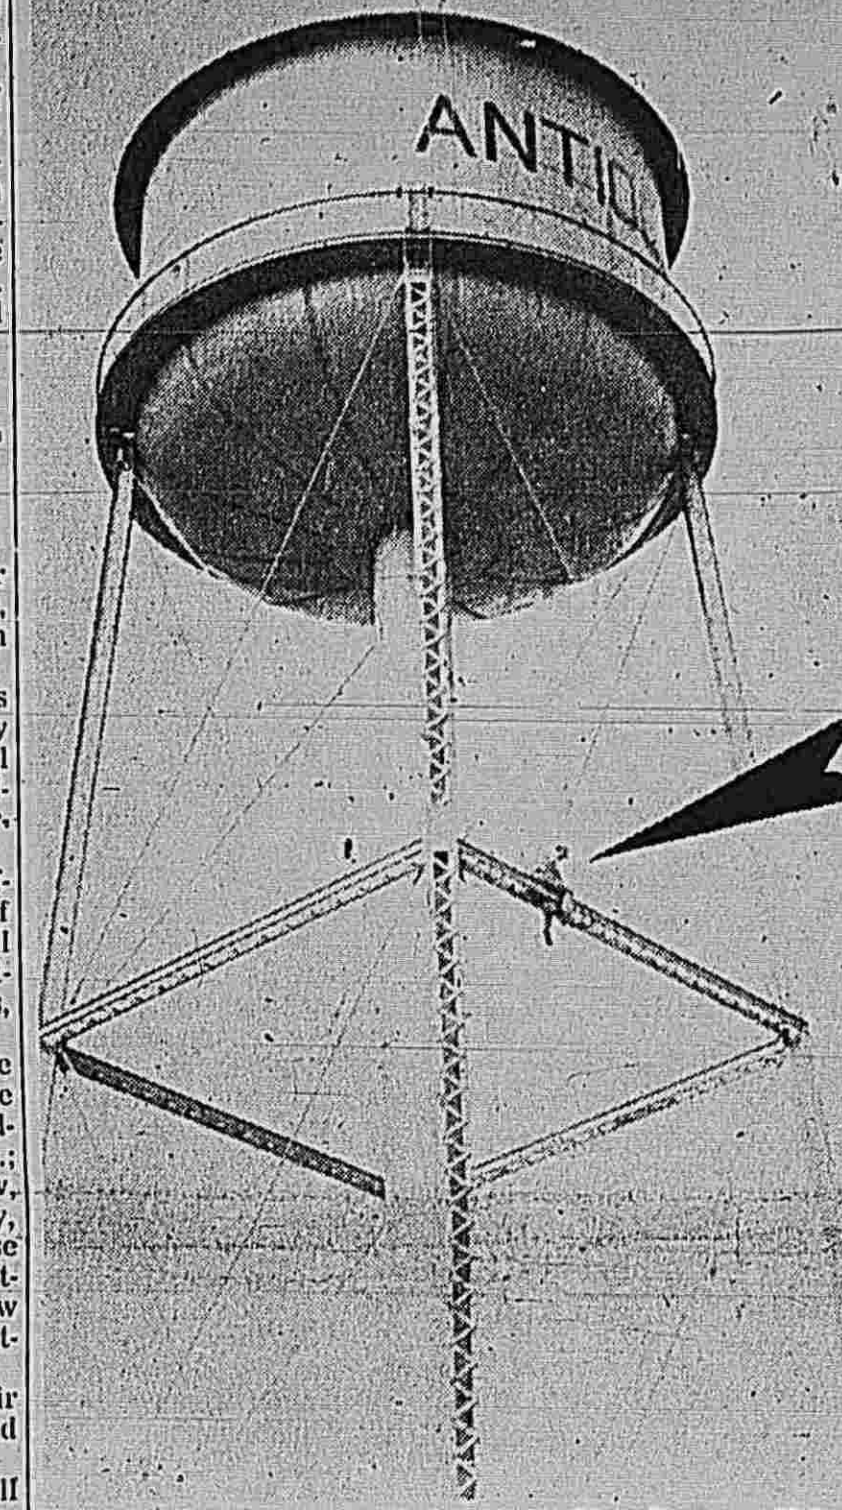

In the car with Ford, and also killed, were Jerry Paul Armstrong, 24, of 87A Westmoreland Drive, Vernon Hills, and Donald Ray Vaughn, 27, of 87B Westmoreland Drive, Vernon Hills.

William M. Hill, 50, Chicago, in the other car involved in the collision, was the fourth fatality in the crash. Injured and taken to the hospital were Hill's wife, Myrtle; Norman Weise, 36, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; his wife, Genevieve, and daughter, Deborah, 6.

Norman Ford, of Channel Lake was born July 11, 1940. He lived in Channel Lake the past year and was employed at Quaker Industries Co. of Antioch. He is survived by his widow, Ruby. Services were held Wednesday in Providence, Ky.

Jerry Armstrong was employed at the Ball Brothers Co. in Antioch. He is survived by his widow, Wanda, and three children. Funeral services were held at Russellville, Ala.

Services for Donald Vaughn were held in Kentucky.

THAT DOT at the end of the arrow is Edgar Simonsen, high on the structure of the Antioch water tower. Edgar was installing fittings for the new siren for the Fire Department. The whistle was operating by noon.

New Fire Siren Installed

Antioch's new fire siren was installed on the water tower across from the fire station last Wednesday.

The old siren has served the community since 1922. It's failed to sound off a few times lately. The motor on the old siren was a 5 h.p., the new one is 7½ h.p.

The new siren was purchased from the Federal Sign & Signal Co., Blue Island, at a cost of $625. It weighs 440 pounds and was elevated to its perch on the water tower with a tow truck and block and tackle.

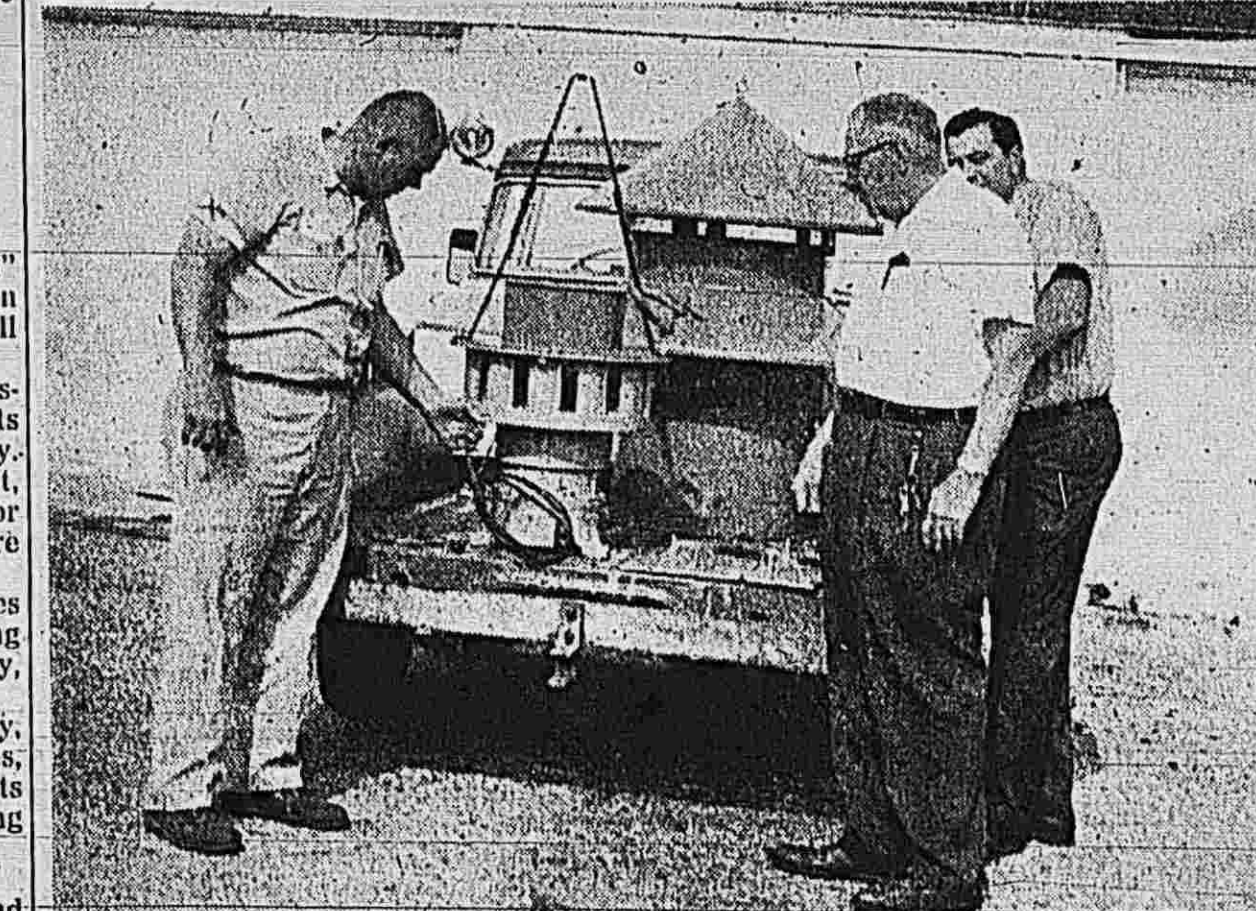

Edgar Simonsen installed the new siren in its lofty spot, "because I couldn't get anyone else to do it," he

Register First Graders At Emmons

T. Barlow, principal of the Emmons Grade School, has announced that registration of first graders who have not been registered will be held at the Emmons Grade School office from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Tuesday, July 27, and Thursday, July 29.

Registered birth certificates must be presented for first grade students.

The height didn't bother him, he declared, he had worked on the old tower when it was put up. None of the helpers on the ground seemed to envy Edgar his lofty position.

MAYOR RAY TOFT, Clerk Clarence Shultis and Trustee Arthur Molordik inspect the fire siren before it begins its journey up to the structure of the water tower.

EDITORIAL Green Light—Caution

Two cars approach an intersection as the light changes. Each thinks he has the right-of-way—or, perhaps, one thinks he can save a few minutes by "bluffing it out" and going through on the amber light.

It doesn't work. The cars collide. Result, four dead, four injured.

Most drivers slow as they approach a red light. No use hurrying. It only means a longer wait at the intersection.

How many slow as they approach a green light? Not enough, obviously. Too many approach a green light at high speed hoping to "make it through."

Approach a green light with as much caution as you would a red light. Slow enough so that if the light changes to amber as you near the intersection you can stop. So you lose a few minutes in your total trip. You may add years to your life with that few moments you wait—years to your life and others.

So, once in a while, you surrender your right-of-way. It really isn't worthwhile—to die maintaining your right of way.

Adlai Stevenson, Statesman

Illinois paid homage to one of its most famous sons last week after his sudden death in London last Wednesday.

Adlai E. Stevenson was returned to the state where he served as Governor Friday afternoon. His body lay in state in the State Capitol from Friday afternoon to Sunday, to receive the homage of thousands of his fellow-Illinoisans and the great from across the nation.

Stevenson was serving as U.S. ambassador to the U.N. at the time of his death. In his two unsuccessful campaigns for the Presidency of the U. S. he acquired a reputation as a wit and an "egghead". As U.N. ambassador, he acquired true stature as a statesman.

The loss of a dedicated and selfless man, serving his nation to the best of his ability, will be deeply felt by his fellow-Americans. His death comes at a time when the U. S. needs every statesman she can muster to meet the troubles and crises that arise every day in our dealings with other nations.

Illinois and the nation have lost a great son.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

The recent untimely death of former Governor Adlai Stevenson brought forth a flood of eulogies extolling the U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations and the tributes brought a glow of pride to most Illinois residents and to most people in Lake County.

But those eulogies must have brought a tinge of shame to many Libertyville residents because of the actions of a few Libertyville Republicans back in 1948 when Mr. Stevenson was running for Governor on the Democratic ticket.

Few people in Lake County had ever heard of the future Governor when the gubernatorial campaign started and the thought that a resident of this area might become Governor on the Democratic ticket was more than many loyal members of the GOP could stand.

To show their staunch Republicanism, supporters of Gov. Dwight Green, who was seeking a third term, shouted approval of a resolution introduced at a rally in Libertyville denying Libertyville residence to the Democratic standard bearer.

Technically, of course, the Republicans were correct because Stevenson's home was not within the Libertyville city limits and in fact not even in Libertyville township.

This display of partisan provincialism had no bearing on the outcome of the race of course, and he went on to become Governor and later the Democratic candidate for President on two occasions.

It seems ironic that the Democrats have found two candidates with strong Lake County ties to elect as governor while the Republican Party studiously ignores this area when searching for candidates for state office.

It is barely possible that Lake County could present a candidate for U. S. Senator in the 1966 primary election. State Senator Robert E. Coulson, of Waukegan, was the beneficiary of extensive press coverage during the last session of the General Assembly because of his position as Majority Leader in the Senate and since the adjournment of the legislature he has been appearing on Chicago television panel shows with the regularity of one of the Gabor sisters.

Highly articulate and fast on his feet in a wide-ranging discussion, Sen. Coulson has come off well in his television stunts and he has more appearances scheduled in the future.

Sen. Coulson has also been writing a newspaper column which was carried in many papers throughout the state adding to his reputation.

In addition a volunteer staff has kept newspapers and radio stations in all sections of the state abreast of his activities through fre-

Your Congressman
Reports....
By Cong. Robert McClory

The biggest explosion in the Democratic hierarchy in Washington is very apt to erupt over the issue of the MILITARY PAY BILL.

As Congressman Samuel Stratton, a New York Democrat, who supports the President and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, declares: "The real issue is not whether there is to be a military pay raise, but what kind and how much."

Secretary McNamara has recommended an average 4.7% increase at an estimated annual cost of $369-million. This recommendation is based upon a report prepared by a panel appointed by the President and headed by former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Marion Folsom.

The Folsom panel indicated that military compensation was comparable to civilian pay levels and concluded that this was "sufficient to attract and retain adequate numbers and quality of personnel in the Armed Forces."

When confronted with this conclusion, Committee Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, Democrat of South Carolina, and all other members of the House Armed Services Committee (except Congressman Stratton) fairly boiled. They charged that the Folsom Panel conclusion "is simply not true." In retaliation, Congressman Rivers and his committee have delivered some telling blows.

First, they have demonstrated that the Armed Forces pay levels are neither (a) attractive nor (b) retaining adequate numbers of military personnel. While more than 20% of the military inductees reenlisted in 1962, this reenlistment figure dwindled to a mere 3.6% in 1964. In addition, enlisted personnel with more than two years of service were omitted from the 1963 military pay increase, and they are the service men upon whom a successful reenlistment program must depend. The committee also points out in this regard that the inadequacy of present military pay levels is demonstrated further by the Department of Defense demand for a flexible reenlistment "bonus."

Second, the House Armed Services Committee presents

quent news releases.

If Sen. Coulson doesn't pass muster with the GOP State Central Committee screening panel, perhaps William (Bon-Bon Bill) Rentschler of Lake Bluff, can gain the nod.

Rentschler, an unsuccessful candidate for the Senate nomination in 1960, is also using the newspaper column as a gambit for keeping his name before the public.

Max Wildman, another recent Lake County contribution to Chicago television, is still waiting for an answer to a question he posed to Democratic spokesmen on the KUP's Show panel.

In discussing re-apportionment for the State Senate and the State House Wildman suggested that districting of the Senate on an area or sectional basis was solidly rooted in American tradition because of the composition of the U. S. Congress.

The Democratic spokesman, solidly wedded to the proposition that all legislators should be Chicago Democrats, talked at great length, but never came to grips with the basic question.

Wildman, of course, is leery of another at-large election of the Illinois House and an Illinois Supreme Court re-apportionment that could give the Democrats control of the Senate as well as the lower house.

It is reasonable to suppose that a re-map of the Senate that is unfavorable to the Democrats would be appealing to the U. S. Supreme Court which has indicated it favors a plan in which both houses of the legislature are based strictly on a population factor.

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

The climax of summer must be near, judging by the many activities scheduled for the next two weeks. First will be the Antioch Chamber's Annual Maxwell Street Days, July 29, 30, and 31. At the same time the Lake County Fair will be in operation, and then the following week, August 7, and 8th, the Jaycees will wind up their annual Queen contest, capped by the Lions Club Farmer's Bar-B-Q. Support these many activities in your community, they help build our town and make us all proud to say we're from Antioch!

THE LATEST REPORT: "Music Man" played to packed houses both Friday and Saturday is indeed a job well done. Although the lack of space is apparent, the entire cast does an outstanding job.

Hurry and get your seats for this weekend ere they are all sold out again. It looks like this may be the last performance of the P.M.&L. in their Main St. theater. Mounting expenses and small resources will force them to find another place to perform. But from what we hear via the vine-ropes, this could be a very interesting change. After all theater supper clubs don't have to belong only to the city-folks! ... Herb Horton is re-cooping at home now after a recent ticker problem.

NOTES TO YOU: The class of 1955 A. T. H. S. (it was you know) held their tenth reunion last Saturday at Lorenz's Smart Country House. Those "Memory Lane" table decorations were cleverly done by Willy Schmidt.

Diane (Sheehan) and Al Masopust journeyed from their new Florida home to attend the festivities. Did you know those Lake County Shriners and their Hondas are the ones raising all that racket at the High School grounds every Wednesday eve? ... Bob Carter was passing out cigars today with the mail, announcing a baby girl, to make it three-of-a-kind at his house! ... and the little lady in the all male domain of Ber. ... is Donna Marie, a daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gutowski on July 7. Where did you go last week, Donna? (Ask the proof reader).

THE LAST DROP: Shirley Stanish's lovely sister is ap-convincing proof that recruit pay levels are below those of 25 years ago when compared to civilian pay levels. The committee's report shows that the 1940 pay for recruits was $30 monthly which was 27.0% of the average civilian wage or salary. The basic $78 per 2month which recruits receive today is only 17.5% of the current civilian scale.

Third, the military services' need for personnel highly skilled in electronics and various scientific subjects has increased. However, under existing salary levels, at the end of their enlistment periods, private industry attracts these skilled individuals to more lucrative jobs. For instance, the Navy estimates its shortage in the electronics repair category alone at approximately 20,000 men (petty officers).

As a result of the Committee hearings, a bill (H.R. 9075) has been recommended to the U. S. House of Representatives providing an average 10.7% increase for military pay at a total annual cost of $824-million in contrast to the $369-million recommended by the Secretary of Defense.

The military pay legislation is of particular significance to the 12th Congressional District of Illinois because of the two large military installations at Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes. With a military payroll of more than $30-million per year at Great Lakes and more than $5-million at Fort Sheridan, the military pay increase could add close to $4-million per year to Lake County payrolls.

The question then is not whether the Congress will vote a military pay increase. Instead, the question is how much. On this issue, Congressman Rivers favoring a 10% increase is pitted against Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, who supports a 4.7% boost. In military vernacular, it may develop into a "dog fight."

appearing in "Brigadoon" at the Highland Park Tenthouse. ... the hot-dog business seems to be at the boiling point. ... Clara Merryman will move her "Clara's Cut and Curl" salon to a Lake St. location soon. ... We dig that Joe Harris' voice almost as much as we do that gold lame jacket of his! DID YOU HEAR? In her night club act, Carol Channing sometimes invites the audience to ask her personal questions. One night a man at-ringside table stood up and said to her, "Do you remember the most embarrassing moment you ever had?" "Yes, I do," Miss Channing said. "Next question?" Red-faced.

Maybe you remember some comments in this column a short time ago about the flimsy tires on new cars. Senator Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin, I'm glad to report, has started agitating for improvements in tires.

Sen. Nelson urges automobile manufacturers to supply larger and safer tires with new cars. He pointed out deficiencies in tires in letters to Ford, General Motors, Chrysler and American Motors.

Senator Nelson also asked the manufacturers whether "someone is trying to fool the public" by putting the ply label in inaccessible places.

Car manufacturers will improve the tires on new cars—if the buying public insists. If enough people insist on knowing just what kind of tires they're getting, and reject cars with inadequate tires, you'll see an almost immediate improvement.

Car manufacturers will give the buying public exactly what they demand. Unfortunately the majority of motorists are not mechanics, they assume a new car is safe, and their main interest is looks and price.

It does seem that a certain amount of integrity should be expected from the manufacturers. They put a great deal of money into safety testing, and they do know what's safe.

Let's hope the buying public gets tire-conscious and demands good tires. MASCULINE & FEMINE I read a rather revolting remark recently—that most old women look like old men, and old men look like old women.

That's bad enough, but even worse is the same marked trend in young people. Young men with lovely long hair—and bangs yet—do a sinuous imitation of the belly dancer to the accompaniment of feminine squeals of rapture. I get nauseated. Then he's joined by a girl? I guess it's a girl—your guess is as good as mine.

Use Sunglasses Properly For Relief From Glare

"As the warm summer air draws more people out-of-doors for recreation, the proper use of sunglasses becomes important," says Frank F. Fowle, president of the Illinois Society for the prevention of Blindness.

The chief purpose of wearing sunglasses is to reduce the physical discomfort caused glare. Brightness is the amount of light given off by a surface in comparison with its background. Perhaps the most common use of the word "glare" indicates a brightness so high that discomfort is produced with an associated loss of visual efficiency.

It is not the amount of sunlight which determines an individual's comfort or what he will see. It is the amount of the reflection of the light that is important. For example, sunlight falling on a green field ordinarily does not cause discomfort because most of the light is absorbed and little reflected. On the other hand, white surfaces such as concrete roads, beaches, water, etc. may reflect as much as 90 percent of the light.

Sunglasses, of course, ease the discomfort from glare but they should be carefully chosen. They should be made from plastic, tempered or shatterproof glass to protect the eyes from glass splinters in case of a fall or accident. This is particularly important in sport participation.

Sunglasses can be ground to prescription for those who need corrective lenses. Good quality, non-prescriptive sunglasses should also be ground and polished scientifically to absorb specific wave lengths of light.

Cheap sunglasses, if they have accompanying defects, should be avoided. They may cause eye fatigue, irritation or headache. They could be dangerous for driving and certain other activities but will not harm the eyes.

The Society points out that once the proper sunglasses are chosen they should be worn with discretion. They should never be worn at dusk or at night, especially when driving. They cut down the eye's natural ability to adjust to darkness and they interfere with side vision. They do not effectively reduce the glare of oncoming headlights. The dazzling effect is just as dangerous as it is without sunglasses.

Most important is the fact that wearing sunglasses while driving at night cuts down the ability to read roadside instructions upon which a person depends for safety and perhaps his life. It is also more difficult to see small children darting out

Teacher Resigns From Staff of Central High

The board of education of Central High School accepted the resignation of Bernard Bringe, business education teacher, at their meeting of July 13.

Bringe will enter graduate school this fall. Three vacancies exist on the staff at the present time.

from between parked cars. Sunglasses should not be worn indoors unless specifically prescribed by an eye doctor. They should not be worn while a person is watching television. Ordinarily worn sunglasses offer no protection from the infrared or ultra violet rays of sunlamps. When using such lamps, only glasses specifically designed for the particular sunlamp should be worn.

At no time, under no circumstances should one look directly at the sun while wearing sunglasses or not. This may cause permanent damage to the eyes and loss of vision.

Write to the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, 220 S. State St., Chicago 60604, for information regarding good eye health habits or telephone 922-8710.

BRIGHT ROADSIDE FLOWERS

The roadsides are now gay with wild flowers—the bright blue of the chickory (in the morning), the graceful queen anne's lace, the ox-eyed daisies and black eyed susans, the lavender blossoms of the mint, many others, and not the least attractive are the dainty pink blooms of the Canada thistles.

Secretary of State Paul Powell has been elected president of the Midwestern States Military-Civilian Traffic Safety organization, a group including traffic safety representatives of Illinois, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

The election was held at the group's second conference at Omaha, Nebraska. Governor Warren Knowles of Wisconsin was named executive vice president. Terms of office are two years. Federal Land Bank Pays Dividends

Farmers of Boone, Lake, and McHenry counties are receiving checks totaling $30,340.20, as dividends on their stock in the Federal Land Bank Association of Woodstock, according to an announcement made by Thomas L. Frey, manager.

This dividend was declared by the board of directors of the association at its last meeting, payable to its member-stockholders of record at the close of business on May 31, 1965.

The payment of this dividend by the association has the effect of reducing the average interest rate paid this year by association members on their loans.

So far in 1965, the association has made Land Bank loans totaling over one million dollars. Substantial amounts of long-term credit are being used to meet the requirements of modern agriculture. The association is meeting this demand by the rendering of prompt service, which is available to all farmers who have a sound basis for credit.

Sermon At Christian Science Churches

"Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day."

In addition to selections from the Bible, there will be readings from the Christian Science textbook. This passage will be included: "Christianity as Jesus taught it was not a creed, nor a system of ceremonies, nor a special gift from a ritualistic Jehovah; but it was the demonstration of divine Love casting out error and healing the sick, not merely in the name of Christ, or Truth, but in demonstration of Truth, as must be the case in the cycles of divine light" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 135).

Mouldy's Wins Grogan Mem.

Mouldy's Lounge won the Jim Grogan Memorial Tournament last Sunday afternoon at Golfview, handing Casey's Packers their first defeat of the season.

Mouldy's crew took the game, 7-4. Casey's men failed in the hitting department Sunday, a factor that really kept them out of the game.

The Packers failed to recover in the consolation game later in the evening and found themselves on the short end of a 5-2 score, with Fox Lake Coin handing them their second defeat.

The Senior division of the Antioch Little League will play the first game of the World Series for their Division on Sunday, July 25 at the Antioch High School athletic field.

The game will start at 2:30 p.m. and match the Antioch Seniors against representatives of the league from Maine-Northfield. Like Antioch, this is the first year for the Maine-North Senior Division.

Winner of Sunday's game will go on to the next game in the eliminations at the Walter Luther High School grounds near Brookfield. Eventually, an area winner will go to the World Series at Des Moines, Iowa.

Reimer Grabs Lead After Bumper-To-Bumper Race

John Reimer, the Caladonia Speed Merchant, extended his modified stock car championship point lead at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night by taking the feature lead with only three laps remaining. The whole evening was denoted by near record speeds and close, hotly contested races, before a fine crowd, considering the threatening skies.

"The 'Flying Frenchman,'" Jim Ouellette, led most of the first seven laps as he waged a see-saw battle with Roger Otto. Jim Sullivan powered by Ouellette in the eighth lap and set out for the checked flag. By the 17th lap, the first four cars: Sullivan, Gino Wagner, Reimer, and Bill Bohn, were all in one nose to tail cluster. In the 18th circuit Reimer forged into second and started a spectacular bumper to bumper, wheel to wheel duel with Sullivan that lasted until the 22nd lap when Reimer moved into the lead for good.

The semi-feature was another crowd-pleaser. Hank Vogel, of Union Grove, took an early lead with Steve Stevens and Bob Ratajczyk in hot pursuit. As the halfway point of the race rolled around, the lead six cars were all bumper to bumper: Vogel, Stevens, Ratajczyk, Fran Ansell, Ed Pensalek, and Bob Seamars in that order. Ratajczyk grabbed the lead in the ninth lap as Vogel spun wildly, but Ansell kept moving up and finally spend into the lead with only three laps to go. As Ansell carried off the honors, Ratajczyk and Stevens engaged in a hot battle, Ratajczyk finally inching Stevens out for second spot.

Burgan Back in Point Lead
In the late model action, Dennis Burgan piloted his new convertible to win the second heat in impressive fashion, pulling within one point of Jim Cossman in the torrid point race for the late model crown.

Cossman worked his way through the traffic jam of 20 late models to grab the lead in the seventh lap of the feature, but with only one lap remaining, Burgan inched into the lead and held on to win. With these two wins, his first after a seven night slump, Burgan bounced back into first spot in the point standings, a slim three points ahead of Cossman after 20 evenings of late model competition.

John Hood turned in the fastest qualifying time for the third time in four nights and captured third in the feature, climbing to fourth in the point standings.

Midseason Championships
The late model midseason championship events next Saturday night are expected to see the point race see-saw even more as double championship points will be awarded. The largest field of the season, including at least seven previous feature winners are expected to vie for the largest late model purse ever offered at the Waukegan Speedway next Saturday, July 24th. An added attraction that night will be a head-on team demolition contest, with five cars on each team. In two weeks, Sunday night, August 1, the modifieds will race in their mid season championship events.

Cossman Takes Point Lead At Speedway

Odell Jones pushed his 427 Ford convertible to its first feature win of the season, by nosing out Jim Cossman at the finish line Saturday night in the Waukegan Speedway action. Cossman by virtue of a second place finish in the feature, an impressive heat race win and being fourth fastest qualifier, collected enough points to inch ahead of Dennis Burgan, who damaged his new Lark convertible in a heat race pile-up.

Scott Clark grabbed the early lead in the feature event, but Dick Von Strom powered by Clark in the second lap and led for the next three circuits.

Ken Becker became the third leader as he swooped by Von Strom and held the lead spot until both Cossman and Jones slipped ahead as they all lapped cars in the tenth lap.

Cossman and Jones dueling bumper to bumper, two laps later Jones dived by on the inside of Cossman, grabbing the lead. The battle continued for the remainder of the race with Cossman racing alongside of Jones for the climactic final three laps.

In the twentieth and final circuit, Cossman pulled even with Jones down the backstretch, but was forced to drop back by a slower car. Meanwhile Becker and fast qualifier, John Hood, battled for third, with Hood grabbing that spot in the nineteenth lap. Jones became the eighth different late model feature winner of the season with his victory.

Late model action earlier in the program saw Jones win the trophy dash in the last lap decision over Ray Dixon. Tim Seyl held on to capture the second heat after a determined challenge by Becker in the final circuit.

Hood came from the rear of the field to snare the third heat. In this race, Dixon nearly flipped as he and Jones dueling for third spot in the final lap. Jim Luther crashed tail first into the starter's stand in the fourth heat and was eliminated from the remainder of the program. Luther currently ranks third in the late model point standings.

Boats Come In All Sizes

Some thirty-seven million Americans have joined to lay to final rest a widely held belief that once was a candidate for the pantheon superstitions which includes such classics as handling loads produces warps or that the hoop snake can roll itself into a hoop and pursue its hapless victims.

As dead as a dinosaur is the once popular idea that boating is the exclusive domain of the rich and mighty or at least the politely well-to-do. If any lingering doubts remain, consider these facts, unearthed as a result of research by the outboard Boating Club of America, a nationwide organization of pleasure boatmen consisting of approximately 25,000 boating families in some 400 affiliated local boat clubs:

Since 1947, the number of recreational boats in use has more than tripled, and current expenditures for pleasure boating, including dock fees, insurance, purchase of new equipment, etc., now average more than $2½ billion annually at the retail level.

The reasons for this abrupt change in less than two generations are many, but leading authorities in the industry place increased leisure time, technological innovations that brought mass production, an ever increasing mobility of population and the ability of the boating industry to price its products so that this exciting sport is available to everyone of moderate means as among the most important.

For less than the cost of a second car, the prospective boat owner will find that he can purchase a sporty runabout, outboard motor capable of pulling water-skiers, and a boat trailer.

Sullivan Wins Action-Filled Race At Wilmet

Jim Sullivan of Antioch, driving the Diestler Motors Plymouth powered modified, won the 25-lap feature race at Wilmet Saturday on heavy and rough track that saw many cars flip in the action that kept fans in their seats right to the finish.

Sullivan took the feature race lead away from Bill Strom of Milwaukee and then stretched out the distance to the 22nd lap when the race had to be stopped to move the car of Don Score off the track. He had tried to move around the ailing car of Gino Wagner but struck the outside wall and damaged his steering to the extent that he couldn't continue.

Sullivan continued in the lead on the restart to the checkered flag and was followed by Duane Harris, Bill Strom, Bob Struck, and Bill Bohn. Harris, the leading point driver in 1965 competition, just made it around Strom for second at the wire. Heat race winners were George Uttech, Kenosha; Jr. Dodd, Waukegan; Jim Olett, Hales Corners; and Kenny Tougan, Milwaukee.

Jr. Dodd also won the 15-lap semi-feature over Bill Kline of Burlington and Lee Weslawski of East Troy. In this race, Darv Nissen of Winthrop Harbor, flipped going off the backstretch with such force that he tore the front axle from his car. Nissen was not injured. In the spectator competition the cars of Tom Schweiss of Fox Lake and Harland Vix of Kenosha were roll-over victims. Neither of these drivers was injured. Pop Kline of Pell Lake was feature race winner and heat race winner in spectator cars was Ray Bush of Silver Lake.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

By Bernice Bernau
Second round results of Lake, Villa Township Babe Ruth league games played since June 28, show the Tigers in the top spot formerly held by the Mets. The Tigers were victorious in two of three games, while the Mets came out on top in one game and dropped two. The important win for the Tigers was their 4 to 2 victory over the Mets.

In other games played during this round, the Colts retained third place by winning over the Cards in the only game played by the Colts. The Cards also lost one to the Mets, but advanced one notch in the standings by surprising the Tigers with a 6 to 2 decision and winning over the Indians. The Twins held the fourth spot as a result of their two wins against no losses. One of the Twins victories was a 10 to 3 upset over the Mets.

LAKE VILLA LITTLE LEAGUE

By Bernice Bernau
In the race for the little hoop-championship it appears that it will be a fight to the finish between the Angels and the Dodgers.

In games scheduled during the period July 5 through July 16, the Angels were rained out and retain a half game lead over the second place Dodgers. The Dodgers played three games during this period, winning two and losing one. The two wins came at the expense of the Pirates and the Cubs. The loss was an upset victory for the Braves, in a close game by a score of 5 to 4. Although out-hit by the Dodgers, 9 to 4, the Mack boys brought home the win. Tom Schofield hit a two-run homer in the second inning for the Dodgers.

In other contests during this period, the Yanks had a one and one record, to move into a tie for the third spot with the Pirates. The Giants and the Braves both won two and lost one to remain deadlocked for the fourth position. The Sox hold down the seventh spot as a result of one win and one loss, while the Cubs who lost two remain in the last place.
